

Exceptional Students

August 2017-July 2018

Our "Exceptional Students" Gymnastics program is specifically designed to benefit students with special needs. In these beginner classes students will learn basic rolls, cartwheels, jumps, strength training & more- each allowing the student to improve upon motor skills, following directions, expressive language, and confidence building. Most importantly, they will have fun in a safe environment!

Our Exceptional Students Program is headed by Department Leader, Briana Mena.

Briana's certifications include:

- Early Childhood Education Certification
- Special Needs Appropriate Practices
- Health Safety and nutrition
- Child Growth and Development
- Behavioral Observation and screening
- Child Care Facility Rules and Regulations
- Identify and reporting Child abuse and neglect
- Early Literacy
- infant toddler Appropriate Practice
- Pre-School Appropriate Practice
